

Hi Tim it's Rodders from The Pub of the Year (Newport Ale House).

We will be opening on Saturday 4th July but obviously at reduced numbers. All will be back to normal apart from the new rules that we will have to adhere to.

All things have been put into place for the safety of all staff and customers. But I will probably have to only admit only a dozen people at one time.

We're all looking forward to seeing everyone and can't wait.
